

THE CHRISTMAS PURPOSE

WHY THE INCARNATION MEANS EVERYTHING
PHILIPPIANS 3:7-11

Dr. Mike Fabarez • Compass Bible Church • December 20 & 21, 2025 • Msg. 25-41

Philippians 3:7

But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. 8 Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith—10 that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, 11 that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Application Questions

These questions are provided for your further study and application of today's sermon. Thoughtfully writing out the answers to these questions will help to drive home the point of today's study. It is also helpful when you are able to discuss your answers with others. For more information about small groups at Compass Bible Church that utilize these questions as the basis for their weekly discussion, please call the church office at (949) 540-0699 or email us at SmallGroups@CompassChurch.org.

1. Read Titus 3:4-7. This passage is not usually associated with Christmas, but how does it perfectly explain why the incarnation was necessary for our salvation, especially in light of our inability to save ourselves?
2. Read Romans 3:20-24. Can you identify ways you once trusted your own efforts, morality, or obedience—and how this passage confronts that kind of confidence?
3. Read Philippians 2:8-11. Why is it so important for Christians not to forget the cross when they consider the manger?
4. Read 1 Corinthians 1:30-31. What does it mean that Christ is our wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption, and how does that truth recalibrate our view of ourselves?
5. Read Colossians 1:24-27. How can you, especially during this Christmas season, follow Christ's pattern of sacrifice in order to extend the hope of Christ to others?
